Our team has curated a custom schedule for our BAS customers that is set up to minimize disruption to in-office operations by consolidating all BAS sessions to one day. You are welcome to join other sessions throughout the conference, but we recommend prioritizing Tuesday and Wednesday attendance.

Please review the schedule carefully, as we've broken it out by suggested sessions for each role or product level. Keep an eye out for another email to sign up for specific sessions based on the above schedule.

As a reminder, once you register and complete payment for your spot, you will receive an email with hotel booking details at discounted rates.
